To Whom It May Concern

Pirster Pte is happy to offer a recommendation for the work that Healy Consultants undertook for the company. International incorporation can be fraught with opacity, anxiety and vulnerability - especially if it is being done remotely as we did. Healy Consultants worked really hard to make it transparent, straight forward and confidence-inspiring. Knowing that they are there as a partner makes global work so much more feasible.

All Healy staff responded promptly to every request that was made. In particular, our project manager, Karen Lee always ensured that momentum was maintained and cleared any matters we faced. Both the assignment plan, fees and communication were transparent and accurate. Karen was always very proactive to drive the project to completion.

I look forward to working with Healey Consultants again on future work and happily recommend them to others.

Sincerely

Fiona Thompson
